

Looking for: Physical actors/dancers m/f

In-company year programme 2021- 2022 for physical actors including training in theatre, dance, mime and/or performance art.

This is a learning path for up-and-coming talents to gain a lot of experience and offers opportunities for further development.

Period

Season 2021-2022 - August/September 2021 until May 2022

ZID Theater – City Art & Performance Centre

ZID Theater – City Arts & Performance Centre is a cultural organisation, based in Amsterdam. ZID produces the yearly international ExploreZ festival, multidisciplinary performances and co-creates projects with art professionals, urban talents and citizens. ZID works on a local, national and international level. ZID has her own space at the border between Amsterdam West and Nieuw-West. ZID is a workplace, urban talents 'development site', stage and connector. This way, urban, national and international projects are realised with Amsterdam functioning as a creative home. More information can be found at www.zidtheater.nl

Job content:

In this position you will train as a physical actor/dancer with our permanent group of performers - the ZID ensemble - on every Wednesday evening and also one morning or evening a week. You participate in one of the performances of the ZID ensemble as an intern. You also get studio time at your disposal to develop your own work and you work towards your own solo programme under professional guidance. This will be shown as a performance or as a 'work in progress' during the Explorez festival in May 2022.

Looking for:

4 actors.

3 actors from 16 August or 1 September 2021, and 1 actor who can start immediately to take over a role and develop his own creation within our existing performance. The first performance is on 7 August abroad.

Job requirements:

- Available from August 2021 until May 2022 on agreed days and times
- Extensive experience and/or training in physical theatre, dance, mime or performance art
- Affinity with multidisciplinary, physical dance theatre
- Flexibility, eager to learn, independent, motivated
- A team player, international and intercultural minded
- Language: a good command of Dutch and/or English
- Commitment

On offer:

- An instructive environment and an (international) network
- Lots of experience and international exchanges. Opportunity to develop and to continue working at ZID Theater after this project
- A creative, dynamic and challenging atmosphere
- Possibility to perform in the ZID productions as an intern
- Opportunity to develop your own solo performance under professional guidance

The artistic team of ZID and (inter)national guest teachers provide the training:

- Physical and voice training
- Co-creation in collaboration with others
- Performer's presence
- Tools and techniques for the creative process
- Improvisation
- Guest workshops by international colleagues and experts
- Project design

Costs:

Thanks to ZID's many years of experience in guiding and training different talents, ZID wants to open up this pilot project to upcoming talents and young people who are at the start of their career. We have therefore decided to offer this program free of charge and we ask the participants to evaluate the program with us. Tuition will be charged from the following year.

Contact and job information:
